

MARIE REAY PRIZE

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of Culture, History and Language (CHL), College of Asia and the Pacific (CAP) will offer a prize known as the Marie Reay Prize.

The objective of the prize is to assist students in the CHL Anthropology Program with the costs of conducting ethnographic fieldwork during their PhD research.

The value of the prize awarded is $650.

The prize will be on offer annually.

This award is named in honour of Dr Marie Reay, one of the distinguished members (during 1959-1987) of the Department of Anthropology, Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies at the Australian National University, which is now the Program in Anthropology in the School of Culture, History and Language (CHL), College of Asia and the Pacific (CAP).

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student
- (b) enrolled as a PhD student in the Anthropology Program of the School of Culture, History and Language, College of Asia and the Pacific
- (c) has completed an application for funding support that is considered by the judging panel to be the most likely to enhance the quality of the applicant's field research. The deadline for applications is August 20.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of a maximum one-page single-spaced request and justification, for a field research expense that cannot be covered by CHL's normal research allocation. The application should include a fieldwork budget

The judging panel shall consist of at least two members, to be appointed by the Head of the CHL Anthropology Program. The panel will make a recommendation on the prize to the Dean, CAP once each year, by mid-September. The School reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The prize may not be shared.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the Dean, CAP no later than fourteen days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean CAP on the recommendation of the Head of the CHL Anthropology Program.
