

NOEL BUTLIN PRIZE FOR ECONOMIC HONOURS HISTORY ESSAY

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics may offer a prize known as the Noel Butlin Prize for Economic Honours History Essay.

The objective of the prize is to award a student who has achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark in ECON4488 Economic Honours Research Essay for a thesis in the field of economic history.

The value of the prize is $750.

The prize was created to honour the late Emeritus Professor Noel Butlin, the inaugural professor of economic history at the ANU and a distinguished fellow of the Economic Society of Australia. The prize may be awarded annually from 2009.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU Student who is:

- a) domestic or international student;
- b) enrolled in an Honours program in the ANU College of Business and Economics; and
- c) achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark, in the course ECON4488 Economic Honours Research Essay for a thesis in the field of economic history.

3. SELECTION AND CRITERIA

The prize shall be awarded to the student who achieves the best result as shown by the award of the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark, with First Class Honours, in the Economic Honours Research Essay course, with a thesis in the field of economic history.

The ANU College of Business and Economics reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

If the course Economic Honours Research Essay ceases to be offered, the prize shall be awarded in respect of another course the content of which, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics, is similar to the content of the course above.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the College of Business and Economics no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.
