

ANU MEDICAL SCHOOL

The RANZCP Beverley Raphael Prize for Psychiatry

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

The RANZCP Beverley Raphael Prize for Psychiatry is awarded to the most outstanding final-year medical student in psychiatry.

The prize of AUD$1000 is sponsored by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists (RANZCP).

Professor Raphael was the Professor of Psychiatry at the Australian National University Medical School until 2016. Highlights from her remarkable career include a decades-long contribution to the fields of trauma and bereavement; a leading light in her profession as past President of the Royal Australian College of Psychiatrists; a distinguished career in public service as Director of the NSW Centre for Mental Health and her commitment as an inspiring educator throughout her career, notably as foundation Professor of Psychiatry at the Newcastle University Medical School. Professor Raphael passed away in 2018. This award is named to honour her achievements and her exceptional contribution to Psychiatry and education throughout a long and distinguished career.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU MChD student who is:

- (a) enrolled in Year Four of the MChD at the ANU College of Health and Medicine;
- (b) obtained a Higher Level Performance result in a Scientific Essay on Psychiatry; and
- (c) obtained a Higher Level Performance result in the Psychiatry and Addiction Medicine clinical and written assessments.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

A Selection Committee drawn by the Dean, ANU Medical School, including the Chair of the Academic Unit of Psychiatry Medicine, will decide the recipient of the award based on the eligibility criteria.

The prize shall not be shared. If, in any year, two or more students achieve the same level of excellence, the winner will be determined by invitation to discuss their essay with the Selection Committee.

If, in any year, no student is assessed by the selection panel of the Academic Unit of Psychiatry & Addiction Medicine, as sufficiently outstanding and reflecting comprehensive knowledge of psychiatry, the prize shall not be awarded in that year.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to Medical School no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
 - (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
 - (c) after 3 years
- whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU Medical School on the recommendation of the discipline of psychiatry & addiction medicine.
