

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITYANU MEDICAL SCHOOL MARY POTTER PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE*AWARD CONDITIONS

1. There shall be a prize for award by Council each year called the ANU Medical School Mary Potter Prize for Excellence.
2. The prize shall consist of a medical book and stethoscope to the total value of $500.
3. The prize shall be awarded to the student who, in that year:
 - (i) was enrolled in Year Four of the Bachelor of Medicine Bachelor of Surgery Program;
 - (ii) undertook at least once clinical rotation at Calvary Hospital in Year Three and/or Year Four;
 - (iii) demonstrates excellent clinical skills as well as an exemplary commitment to the Calvary core values of hospitality, healing, stewardship and respect; and
 - (iv) submits a 500 word essay outlining their experience during their attachment at Calvary Hospital (for example, strengths and weaknesses) and how medical teaching may be further developed at Calvary.
4. Mid-July each year, the Sub-Dean of the School of Clinical Medicine at Calvary Campus will seek nominations from supervising clinicians and colleagues within the multi-disciplinary team.
5. Nominees will be invited to submit a 500-word essay to the Sub-Dean by the end of August.
6. The Selection Committee shall be chaired by the Sub-Dean, and include an Executive Medical Services representative, the Director of Mission and a clinical tutor.
7. The Selection Committee shall review the submissions and determine a winner.
8. The prize shall not be shared.
9. If, in any year, no student is assessed by the Selection Committee as sufficiently outstanding, the prize shall not be awarded in that year.