Disclaimer: Correct at time of print April 2020. Adjustment factors are reviewed annually, please refer to anu.edu.au/study/apply/anu-adjustment-factors
To apply to ANU, you have to meet our co-curricular or service requirements*. Check to see if you have met the requirements before you apply.

Skill to succeed
The skills you gain outside of the classroom matter. These experiences will help you succeed at university and increase your employability upon graduation. At ANU you’ll have the opportunity to develop these skills further through participating in internships, international exchange programs and much more.

In your application, you will have the opportunity to tell us what you learnt outside the classroom. These include activities such as volunteering, part-time work, caring for a family member or playing sport.

Meeting the co-curricular or service requirement
To gain admission to ANU, you will be required to meet the co-curricular or service requirement in addition to meeting the academic requirements for your preferred ANU program.

The matrix on the next page provides examples of the type of activities that we recognise.

Each activity is mapped against seven skills:

> Creative and Critical Thinking
> Community Engagement
> Inclusion and Awareness of Diversity
> Communication
> Leadership
> Personal Responsibility
> Teamwork

You have met the co-curricular or service requirement when you can demonstrate that you’ve attained at least three of seven skills.

How the co-curricular or service requirement works

> The co-curricular or service requirement is a threshold which is either met or not met. We won’t rank you against other applicants.

> The requirement won’t modify your ATAR or ANU selection rank. You must meet it in addition to other admission requirements that apply to your preferred program.

> The requirements can be met through activities that were completed in Years 10, 11 or 12; and must be met at the time of application.

> Supporting documentation must be submitted to confirm your participation in activities. Example documentation and templates are available for download.

For more information and to check if you’ve met the co-curricular or service requirement, see: anu.edu.au/study/apply

* If you are a domestic Australian school leaver in 2020, wanting to apply for an undergraduate degree starting in 2021.

As Australia’s national university, we strive to lead the way when it comes to acknowledging, celebrating and supporting our Indigenous people.

With this in mind, we make a point of maximising opportunities for our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

Tjabal Indigenous Higher Education Centre

‘Tjabal’ describes the return of people and clans to a central meeting place—a homeland. Bringing these experiences, knowledges, and memories together allows us to share and grow as a community. At the Tjabal Centre, you will find Indigenous students and staff strongly committed to improving education outcomes and achieving study and career goals that positively impact Indigenous communities.

The Tjabal Centre provides:

> academic support and advice > pastoral care and personal support > access to free, high quality tuition > advice on internships and scholarships > access to ANU services, including the health centre, careers and academic skills and learning > outreach programs for prospective ANU students > study spaces, a computer laboratory and lockers > bikes for cross-campus use.

Indigenous pathway

All Indigenous students who want to study at university should be able to do just that.

> Priority admission when applying directly to ANU. This means that if you meet the admission requirements for your ANU program of choice and declare your Indigenous heritage, you will be given preference.

INDIGENOUS OPPORTUNITIES

Zoe Turner

Bachelor of Actuarial Studies

"I grew up moving around a lot in Queensland and Tasmania. A constant in my life has been my culture. I applied to ANU because of its strong reputation both academically and in its community. As a Torres Strait Islander student, knowing that ANU has a strong Indigenous community has made the transition to Canberra and university life much easier. Seeking out support when you need it will improve your university experience so much, and knowing that the Tjabal Centre is always there, will put you at ease. In addition, attending Tjabal events will open up opportunities and allow you to meet new, fabulous people. I’ve enjoyed my time at ANU immensely and look forward to using what I have learned to make a contribution to my culture."
You can apply for a wide range of scholarships at ANU to help make university more affordable.

Scholarships are awarded for a range of things including academic merit, financial need, and equity and accessibility, and can help to offset the cost of tuition, accommodation and travel expenses among other things. Some of our scholarships include:

The Tuckwell Scholarship

The most transformational undergraduate scholarship program in Australia is made possible through the generosity of ANU alumnus Graham Tuckwell and his wife Louise. The scholarships are funded by the largest ever contribution made by an Australian to an Australian university.

Applications for students commencing in 2021 open early March 2020 and close at 3pm on 25 May 2020.

National Indigenous University Scholarship & National Indigenous Merit Scholarship

The objectives of the National Indigenous University Scholarship (NIUS) and National Indigenous Merit Scholarship (NIMS) are to acknowledge the academic excellence of Indigenous students in secondary school studies and provide assistance with costs related to tertiary studies.

To be considered for the NIUS, an ATAR 95.00 and above or equivalent, with no adjustment factors, must be achieved.

To be considered for the NIMS, an ATAR between 90.00 to 94.94 or equivalent, with no adjustment factors, must be achieved. Additional eligibility criteria apply.

National University Scholarship

The National University Scholarship (NUS) is to acknowledge the academic excellence of students in secondary school studies and provide assistance with costs related to tertiary studies.

To be considered for the NUS an ATAR 99.90 and above or equivalent, with no adjustment factors, must be achieved.

Additional eligibility criteria apply.

Australian National Scholarship

Each year the Australian National University may offer up to 25 awards known as the Australian National Scholarship.

The award is to provide access and support to talented students from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Australian Excellence Scholarship

The Australian Excellence Scholarship is to acknowledge the achievement and provide financial assistance and support the top three student’s achieving the highest ANU selection rank or ATAR in each Australian state and territory.

The Love Scholarship

Love Scholarships give a helping hand to students who have faced life circumstances that pose a serious and sustained challenge to their ability to study at university. Love Scholarships promote and support equity and diversity at ANU.

- Students who apply through UAC are required to apply for scholarships separately. Students who submit a direct application to ANU in 2021 can choose to be considered for all available scholarships.

Flexible Double: Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/ Bachelor of International Security Studies

I came to Canberra from a regional town in Victoria after being lucky enough to receive an ANU Equity Accommodation Scholarship and Australian Veterans’ Children Assistance Trust Commemorative Bursary. With these to support me, I’ve been able live on campus, study and take part in both my residence’s and the ANU wider community without major financial pressure.

Studying and living at ANU has also given me a wealth of opportunities to do the things I’m passionate about, including being a volunteer and participating in my residence’s arts events and student committees.

All you have to do to get the most of your ANU experience is have the courage to join in.

Be a part of a vibrant and inclusive residential community on campus

ANU Residential Experience

Broaden your student experience and develop lifelong friendships and networks by choosing to live on campus in an ANU residential hall.

As well as having Canberra’s CBD, your classes, gyms and much more on your doorstep, you’ll be joining a world-class campus community that’s all about expanding your horizons and helping you get the most out of your ANU study experience.

Your hall will have its own ethos, character and social and academic life. As a resident, you’ll become part of an exciting and diverse community that supports your safety and wellbeing 24/7 and provides amazing opportunities to make lifelong friendships and build those ever-important career-enhancing networks.

As well as access to residential staff and student advisers, who will help you settle into campus life and link you to support services whenever you need them, living at the heart of campus will put you within easy reach of an exciting range of academic, cultural, sporting and social activities.

ANU offers both self-catered and catered rooms and can make it easier for you to settle into university life by guaranteeing a place in one of our residential halls if you’re eligible.

Explore each of our residential halls now at anu.edu.au/study/accommodation to find one that suits you.

Cost of living

Canberra is Australia’s national capital and has a moderate to high cost of living. In addition to accommodation costs, you’ll need to budget for other expenses, such as food, entertainment, public transport fares, textbooks, clothing and stationery.

You can keep costs down by shopping at low-cost supermarkets such as Aldi, Big W, Target and Kmart. Buying produce that is in season and cooking your own meals can also help you manage your budget, as can buying clothes second-hand at charity shops or online marketplaces.

Using public transport rather than driving a car will also save you money. Both Canberra and the ANU campus are bike friendly and the local light-rail and bus services are great ways to get around the city.

Also, once you’re on campus, you won’t have to go far to access reasonably priced retail outlets and eateries. Summer markets, book-swap opportunities and student entertainment events are just some of the events on offer at Kambri, our innovation and cultural hub.

You can estimate your university expenses with this calculator insidersguides.com.au/cost-of-living-calculator.

Accommodation Guarantee

If you’re moving to Canberra from interstate, we guarantee you somewhere to live on campus during your first year of university. Please refer to anu.edu.au/study/accommodation for application information and deadlines.

"Leaving home is hard. One of the scariest things I have done in my life was taking the leap from the safety of my family and community in Adelaide to move to Canberra for university study. It is also the best decision I have made to date. As someone who is extremely close to my family, I never expected to settle in so quickly at ANU.

Since arriving in Canberra I have made some of my closest friends and had continuous pastoral support from the Senior Resident team. I have had academic support from lecturers, tutors and older students and spent countless mealtimes sitting in the dining hall thinking how grateful I am to be at ANU. The University’s educational quality speaks for itself; the only thing that made me hesitant about moving was leaving my family. But now I call ANU home, and my College my family."
INTERNSHIPS

Get job-ready skills and contribute to something bigger than you. Take on some amazing internships here and overseas, some of which are exclusive to ANU.

Australian National Internships Program

An elite opportunity for you to undertake a 12-week research-oriented internship with organisations like the ACT Legislative Assembly, government departments and agencies, embassies and diplomatic missions, national cultural institutions, leading NGOs, industry organisations, think-tanks and policy research centres.

The Australian National Internships Program (ANIP) is the only university program that offers Australian Commonwealth Parliamentary Internships. Interns are based in the offices of Members of Parliament and Senators and engage with a range of portfolio activities that shape national policymaking.

> anip.anu.edu.au

Taiwan Public Policy Internship Program

Head to Taiwan and undertake a six-week research internship with a department or agency in the Taiwanese Government.

The Taiwan Public Policy Internship Program can be undertaken by students of the ANU School of Politics and International Relations for course credit.

Washington Internship Program

Offered through the ANU School of Politics and International Relations, you will get to experience political life in Washington DC over seven weeks in the United States Congress.

You’ll work in the offices of Members of Congress or on the staff of Congressional committees while completing a program of research on a specialised aspect of American government, politics, and public policy.

Flexible Double: Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/Bachelor of Economics

ANU has given me the once-in-a-lifetime opportunities and adventures that come with being a student of a world-class university – and through these opportunities, I’m getting to see the impact on the world of the things I’m learning on a day-to-day basis.

During one of my semester breaks, I was fortunate enough to take part in a public health study tour and to be financially supported to study at local hospitals in Yogyakarta, Depok and Jakarta in Indonesia. At all of these hospitals, I learned about implementing public health programs in developing countries and different geographical areas.

This year, I am excited about being part of a team of ANU students who will be volunteering as paralegals in the Kimberley region of remote Western Australia, where we will be supporting lawyers working to get justice for Indigenous Australians.

Every day that I’m at ANU, I get closer to completing my degree while gaining new degrees of experience.
Expand your outlook and include overseas experience in your study program.

Student Exchange
Overseas travel gives you opportunities to study courses beyond those offered at ANU, make friends and form global networks, and to build skills and knowledge that can expand your career options.

You can undertake a traditional exchange opportunity with one of our 170 partner universities across 39 countries. Apply to spend one or two semesters at a leading university in one of these distinctive destinations, while you earn credits towards your ANU degree.

David Chieng
Flexible Double: Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws
The best thing about studying at ANU is quite easily the amazing support networks I’ve formed with the people I’ve met at college and in classes.

Another one of my favourite things about ANU is the amount of overseas exchange student opportunities available. During my two-and-a-half years here, I have already done a short winter language course in Japan at Ritsumeikan University, with the help of a $3,000 NCP Mobility Grant and studied [one of the law programs] at the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) Summer School.

SINGLE DEGREE PROGRAMS

Want to focus your studies?

Choose from over 50 single degree programs across our seven academic colleges. Focus on a specific subject area or select a combination of subject areas to explore.

Single degrees generally take between three and four years of full-time study to complete, and allow you to focus on a structured discipline or experience a broad range of subjects.

If you have a career in mind and know what you want to study, choose a structured degree like a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) or a Bachelor of Health Science.

If you want flexibility to study a range of subjects within a discipline, choose something like the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science.

2 There are compulsory additional selection criteria, check anu.edu.au/study/apply/anu-undergraduate-additional-selection-criteria

* Selection Rank: The ranking that tertiary admission centres and most universities actually use to assess admission to a program. A person’s program Selection Rank can include their ATAR, any equity adjustments they are eligible for other contributions calculated on the basis of work experience or previous non-secondary study, portfolio assessments, results of the Special Tertiary Admissions Test, other supplementary tests, etc.

2020 Selection Rank required for consideration to enter in next intake: where a threshold minimum Selection Rank must be achieved to be considered for admission to a course or institution.

Note: Admission requirements may vary from year to year. Admission requirements for entry in 2021 may be subject to change. See programsandcourses.anu.edu.au for any changes in entrance requirements. Information correct at time of printing, April 2020.
Satisfy your intellectual curiosity and tailor your studies to prepare for your dream career.

- Graduate with two qualifications.
- You’ll have a clear advantage when applying for jobs.
- It takes less time than studying two undergraduate degrees separately.
- You’ll have the same full-time workload as a student studying a single undergraduate degree.

For more information on Flexible Double Degrees go to programsandcourses.anu.edu.au

Combine:

- any two degrees within the Arts, Social Sciences, Business or Science group
- a Bachelor of Laws with another degree within the Law group
- a Bachelor of Engineering, Advanced Computing or Software Engineering with another degree within the Engineering and Advanced Computing group.

Flexible Double: Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/Bachelor of Politics, Philosophy and Economics

Before I came to ANU, I didn’t know how contagious passion could be. All of my professors, lecturers and tutors bring invaluable real-world experience to my classes and the way they discuss concepts always makes me feel like I could also contribute to these fields.

I love studying at ANU. From the lifelike assignments and International Relations Society embassy visits to building ‘hotels’ for native bees with the Environment Collective, and being a member of the Dining Club (I’m a foodie!), being at ANU is more than just studying for me.

ANU cultivates unique international communities. This year, I am looking forward to developing academically while broadening my horizons with a student exchange during my summer and winter vacations.

Undergraduate Research Degrees are challenging study programs that give you opportunities for intensive one-on-one guidance from world-leading academics, exclusive placements in research organisations, travel and teamwork.

- You will have the same full-time workload as a student studying a single undergraduate degree.
- You will graduate with skills that are in global demand across government, non-government and not-for-profit, business, consultancy and academic sectors.

Skills to get you ahead

The employment landscape is always changing, especially as technology becomes increasingly sophisticated and prevalent in the workplace.

Traditional jobs are disappearing or changing, while new jobs are emerging in response to contemporary needs.

By choosing to undertake an Undergraduate Research Degree you will develop timeless and highly transferable skills that work across disciplines. In particular, you will develop high-order problem-solving skills that employers are demanding the world over.

These skills will let you work in and across any industry which means that when you graduate, you will be uniquely placed to direct the course of your career.

Lachlan Arthur

Doctor of Medicine and Surgery

Three years ago, when I first came to ANU, I had no idea about the opportunities that would be available to me. I graduated with my first degree, the Bachelor of Philosophy (Honours) – Science, in 2018 after completing my honours year with the Hannan Group in the Department of Cancer Biology and Therapeutics at John Curtin School of Medical Research. Now, I’m in my second year of the Doctor of Medicine and Surgery.

When I first came to ANU, it was because I believed I’d get the best preparation for my dream career as a clinician-researcher, including opportunities to study abroad at world-class institutions.

I was lucky enough to go on a student exchange through ANU twice during my undergraduate degree. Both trips have been once-in-a-lifetime opportunities that have allowed me to meet incredible people, see amazing sites and gain valuable experience that will propel me towards my dream career.

I completed the five-week International Alliance of Research Universities (IARU) summer program at the University of Copenhagen under the supervision of Professor Rudi Westendorp, a world leader in ageing research. While I was in Copenhagen, I also worked alongside students from Oxford, Cambridge, Peking and Tokyo universities, making connections that will last throughout my academic career.

In Switzerland at ETH Zurich, known for its cutting-edge science and technology research, I worked in four different labs over five months – a whirlwind experience – studying diseases ranging from cancer to Hepatitis C. I also got to study protein crystals using one of the three free-electron lasers in the world.
Choose the Undergraduate Research Degree that inspires and challenges you.

FLEXIBLE VERTICAL DOUBLE DEGREES

Build your undergraduate and postgraduate qualifications into one study program while saving time (and money).

In a Flexible Vertical Double Degree (FVDD) you can study a Bachelor and a Master degree in a shorter time.

An FVDD program usually takes four years to complete (5.5 if combining degrees within the Law group) and offers you time and cost savings when compared with studying a Bachelor and a Master degree separately.

Save time and money

You’ll get credit in your Master degree for related areas of study in your Bachelor degree, saving you time and money when compared with studying a Bachelor and Master degree separately.

Specialise or go broad

Study a Master degree in the same field as your Bachelor degree to develop depth of knowledge and specialist skills; or take your Master degree in a different field to broaden your knowledge and develop your transferrable skills.

Stand out from the crowd

Your Master qualification can help you stay competitive in the global jobs market.

Exceptions

Medicine, four-year Advanced degrees or those with built-in Honours, as well as some Master degrees cannot be combined in an FVDD due to their unique degree structures.

For more information on FVDDs, go to anu.edu.au/study/apply/flexible-vertical-double-degree-applications

Vertical Law programs

If you’re just shy of the marks you need to study Law at ANU, an FVDD gives you another pathway into legal practice when you study an eligible Bachelor degree combined with the ANU Juris Doctor.

The Juris Doctor is a challenging and rewarding Master-level degree. If you’re prepared to do the hard yards to maintain the required GPA to enter this program, you’ll get to graduate from one of Australia’s top law schools and be ready to launch a stellar career.

PLAN YOUR DEGREE

You can tailor your studies to suit your interests or careers goals through your majors, minors and specialisations.

What’s a major?
A major is an area within a program that allows in-depth study in a particular field. A major usually consists of a set number of related courses. Majors at ANU require 48 units of study. Typically, each course is worth six units.

Then, what’s a minor?
As the name suggests, a minor has fewer requirements to fulfil than a major, in terms of points and compulsory courses. Minors at ANU require 24 units of study – so typically four courses.

And a specialisation?
Similar to a minor, a specialisation is an area of study with its own courses that are allowed to be taken in conjunction with a specific related major.
